

Financial Arrangements

It is the policy of our office to accept payment upon services rendered.

Complex prosthodontic cases will have payment arrangements individually determined to meet the unique requirements of your case. Financial arrangements will be confirmed by a written agreement that is mutually agreed upon by the patient and the financial coordinator. Our office offers several methods of payment, and our financial coordinator will be happy to assist you with the various options.