

Dental Insurance

Dental insurance payments are a benefit to the patient, but not a method of payment. Our prosthodontic office does not accept the assignment of dental insurance benefits. The patient is financially responsible for payment of fees upon services rendered. Our insurance coordinator will be happy to submit insurance forms for payment that will be received directly by the patient. Please supply us with your current insurance information so that we may assist you in expediting your insurance reimbursement.